Mayor Pro Tem Jeffrey L. Boney Re-Appointed to Serve on National League of Cities' Community and Economic Development (CED) Federal Advocacy Committee

WASHINGTON, D.C. — January 4, 2022 — Mayor Pro Tem Jeffrey L. Boney of Missouri City, Texas has been re-appointed to the National League of Cities (NLC) 2022 Community and Economic Development (CED) Federal Advocacy Committee.

Mayor Pro Tem Boney was re-elected to a one-year term and will provide strategic direction and guidance for NLC's federal advocacy agenda and policy priorities. The appointment was announced by NLC President Mayor Vince Williams of Union City, Georgia.

"I have been an active member of NLC's Community and Economic Development (CED) Federal Advocacy Committee for several years and I am honored to continue working with my colleagues from across the country to make a difference, while representing the City of Missouri City at the federal level," said Mayor Pro Tem Boney.

As a member of NLC's Community and Economic Development (CED) committee, Mayor Pro Tem Boney will continue to play a key role among a diverse group of local leaders in shaping NLC's policy positions and advocating on behalf of America's municipalities before Congress, with the administration and at home.

"NLC's federal advocacy committees are a key tool for gathering insights directly from the communities that our members serve," said NLC President Mayor Vince Williams of Union City, Georgia. "I am excited to have Mayor Pro Tem Boney serve on the Community and Economic Development (CED) committee again, and I look forward to working with him to fulfill the promise of America's cities, towns and villages."

The full leadership of this year's committee will consist of Chair Sharon Weston Broome, Mayor-President of the City of Baton Rouge, LA; Vice Chair Jaime Patino, Councilmember of the City of Union City, CA; and Vice Chair Richard Shaw, Councilmember of the City of Huber Heights, OH.
